Have a patient who is ready to seek treatment? Treatment resources vary greatly based on patient's insurance provider. Follow the guide below to determine the best option.

Uninsured

- Uninsured patients can contact Baltimore Substance Abuse System (bSAS). BSAS staff will look for grant funding and other means to cover individuals who want to enter treatment.

Medical Assistance (MA)

- Patients with Medical Assistance are eligible for most substance abuse inpatient and outpatient treatment programs in Maryland.
- Contact Baltimore Substance Abuse System (bSAS) to assist with referral.
- Visit the Alcohol & Drug Abuse Administration (ADAA) Resource Directory to find specific types of treatment programs in different geographic areas in Maryland.

Medicare

- The co-pay for substance abuse treatment with Medicare can be very high (often 50% of cost).
- If patients are unable to pay the large co-pay, contact Baltimore Substance Abuse System, which can assist patients with referral options for the under-insured.
- University of Maryland's ADAP and OATS will also accept patients with Medicare (may depend on income).

Private Insurance

- Call the insurance company's customer service number on the back of the card to find out which providers are in network (there is often a separate number for substance abuse/mental health).
- If there is a large co-pay, patients can call Baltimore Substance Abuse System to see if there are other low cost options.
